

WOMEN FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, single women group (WHR)

E-news Letter Issue 17

A journey of Peace and Empowerment!

INSPIRATIONAL STORY OF THE CHANGE MAKERS

With single women from different walks of life coming together in WHR to empower other disadvantaged and discriminated single women, it has created a positive rip in not just Nepal but has created a niche for itself in an international arena.

Similarly, with the latest election in the organization WHR has given more women a chance that had previously been actively participating and performing on a grass root level to now perform as an elected member for the organization.

WHR family congratulates the newly elected members for their upcoming tenure and for their future endeavors!

KNOWING HER..

Ms Kunda Sharma, a single mother banker to changer maker has been contributing her energy to strength WHR for last many years. She has already served WHR as Treasure, General Secretary and now Honorable President.

Wishing her all the best to mainstream Single women's issues in National and International forum, to enhance representation of single women in every sphere by strengthening their capacity.

Suprabal Janasewa Shree to Ms. Lily Thapa

Recently Lily Thapa, the founding chairperson of Women for Human Rights (WHR) has been awarded with the prestigious Suprabal Janasewa Shree (third class). It is one of the most prestigious awards to recognize her outstanding efforts in empowerment of Single Women and inspiring many live-in Nepal and around the world. We congratulate her on behalf of entire WHR family.
